

Elaine Marks

Healthcare Assistant

London, United Kingdom elaine@isp.com 020 0222 1122

Profile

Seasoned healthcare assistant with strong experience in caring for patients in hospital and GP settings. Collaborative team player, known for working seamlessly with nurses and other healthcare staff to consistently meet patient needs. Proficient in drawing blood, preparing laboratory samples, and maintaining sterile equipment.

Employment History

Feb 2018 — Present

London, UK

Healthcare Assistant at Royal Hospital London

- Work closely with nurses to assist with patient care and update medical charts accordingly.
- Monitor patients' vitals and record temperatures, pulse, respiration, and weight.
- Provide support to patients in washing, dressing, eating, and mobility needs.
- Ensure clean and organised patient rooms, including changing and making beds.

Jan 2015 — Feb 2018

London, UK

Healthcare Assistant at Dale Miller, GP

- Assisted physician, nurses, and other staff in caring for patients in a fast-paced environment.
- Performed blood draws and processed laboratory samples following appropriate procedures.
- Adhered to aseptic techniques and sterilised equipment to prevent transmission of diseases.

Education

NCFE CACHE

Certificate in Healthcare Support Services - Level 2

NCFE CACHE

Diploma in Healthcare Support - Level 3

Details

Place of birth

Bath

Nationality

British

Skills

Patient Care

Health Promotion

Preventative Care

Patient Education

Phlebotomy

Equipment Sterilisation

Equipment Restocking

Adaptability

Multitasking

Team Collaboration

Highly-Organised

Effective Time Management

Ability to Work Under Pressure

